Please see the FDIC's responses in red.

1. Are MBE/SBE vendors permitted to self-perform the fair opportunity requirements, where applicable? Yes, Minority Business Enterprise/Small Business Enterprise's are able to self-perform.

2. Can the agency confirm whether vendors receive any preference or evaluation consideration for being certified as an SBE and/or MBE? This is not a set aside. All offerors technically capable may bid.

3. Will partial bids be accepted, or is a full-scope response required? No

4. In cases where certain products are discontinued or unavailable, will the agency consider equivalent or alternative solutions? Yes, an equivalent or alternative can be proposed for consideration, however the updated price scheduled was reviewed for accuracy.

5. Is this a new contract, or is there an incumbent vendor currently supporting this requirement? This is a recompete of a much larger requirement that had multiple incumbents.

6. Does this requirement cover strictly software/hardware procurement, or are there expectations for related services such as installation, modernization, configuration, or ongoing support (onsite or remote)? This requirement covers hardware and software along with the sku number for technical support from CISCO.

7. Is this request related to a renewal? Yes

8. If renewal, could you please provide the current contract number and associated serial numbers, if available? The serial number has been provided in the updated price schedule.

9. If the requested renewal detail is not applicable, please confirm whether we may propose a net-new solution. No

10. The proposal due date is listed as 30th June 2026 in the RFQ/RFP and 25th June 2026 on SAM.gov. Which one is correct? The RFQ due date has been extended to 7/1.

11. Who is the current incumbent for this contract/services? There are multiple incumbents.

12. What is the current value (last contract award value)? This requirement was part of a much larger procurement. The award for that requirement will not properly compare to this one.

13. Is the incumbent going to respond to this RFQ? There is no way of knowing who will respond as this requirement is posted on SAM.gov for all qualified vendors to bid.

14. Is the FDIC looking for a new vendor for this services/contract? The FDIC is looking to award the most technically qualified lowest priced offeror.

15. When will the award be announced? Before the period of performance begins.

16. When is the questions submission deadline? The questions submission deadline was 6/15.
