Solicitation FA561326Q0041 Questions and Answers

1.

We are seeking clarification regarding the following requirement:

“Control settings, cycle names, labels and displays on the device must be in English.”

Could you confirm if this is a mandatory and critical compliance requirement? Most equipment on the German market is supplied with German interfaces, and we have been unable to identify equivalent products that meet the English-language requirement.

Would devices with German-language interfaces be acceptable? Alternatively, would any of the following solutions satisfy the requirement:

- Providing English operating instructions and user documentation;

Operating instructions should have English.

- Supplying English translations, overlays, or supplementary labels for the controls and displays?

Supply English overlays or supplementary labels for the controls and displays are acceptable.

2.

With reference to subject solicitation, please confirm if Energy Efficiency Class “E” is acceptable for Dryers?

Energy Efficiency Class “E” is acceptable as long as it is a heat pump dryer and meets the requirements of Directive 2009/125/EC (meaning it is allowed to import and sell in Germany)

3.

With reference to subject Solicitation please clarify the following:

1) SAM Original ID Notice states "PURCHASE OF 800 EA DRYER CONDENSER XL"

Related Attached Solicitation, the schedule has a total of 2100 Each divided as the following:

CLIN 0001 Quantity 800 Each

CLIN 0002 Quantity 500 Each

CLIN 0003 Quantity 500 Each

CLIN 0004 Quantity 300 Each

Please clarify whether the solicitation is for (800 or 2100) Each washers

2) SAM ID Offer due date states 01 July 2026 at 05:00 PM

Block 8 of subject solicitation states: OFFER DUE DATE 22 June 2026

11:00

The solicitation is for 2100 dryers. Some of that amount is pending approval for funding but the total quantity is 2100. Also, The SAM due date was the correct date 1 July 2026 11am EDT. The block 8 date was corrected on the SF1449 and amended on SAM to reflect the correct date.