- Drive up to the building, walk in double doors no more than 5 feet (probably less), right inside the double doors , take apart, bring parts into the truck (that you can park right outside of the building)
- Blue box simulates the double door, green box is where Mamava is, and purple box is where you can park

- Drive up to the building, bring parts into the building thru double doors, walk no more than 75 ft (probably less), and put back together
- Blue box simulates the double door, green box is where Mamava is, and purple box is where you can park)