Pre-Award (RFI) Questions and Answers (Questions 1 through 3)

1. QUESTION:

Based upon the response to question #27, we will provide references on the form provided in Amendment #3 for four projects (two from the A/E and two from the GC).

Please confirm if any other references are required. The response to question #12 implies that 2 references are required for each component of the D-B entity. Are two references required for the A/E, MEP, Structural Engineer, and or anyone else named as a consultant on our team?

RESPONSE:
If the designer is a full-service A/E firm, then only two (2) references are required. If independent consulting firms are proposed as members of the A/E design team, each member of the design team (e.g., architecture, MEP engineering, structural engineering, civil engineering, etc.) must provide two (2*) references*.

2. QUESTION:

We are currently working on the qualification for the above referenced project that is due next week and ran across a question that will determine our submission. We see in the Representations & Certifications that it states the NAICS code is 236220 and the small business size is $36.5M with less than 500 employees. Can you please confirm if this project is small business set aside?

We appreciate any guidance you may be able to provide regarding the status of the set aside.

RESPONSE: This is not a small business set aside. It is a full and open competition.

3. QUESTION:

We see that your project for the design build for your Switzer lower level and conference center doesn't have the FAR CLAUSE 52.208-9 inserted yet. https://www.fbo.gov/notices/55004c2b0b5798d445cb8fec0e20afb1.

RESPONSE: FAR CLAUSE 52.208-9 inserted
