(vi) Description of requirements for the items to be acquired:
The 418th Flight Test Squadron (418FLTS) at Edwards Air Force Base, CA, requests a proposal for work to be accomplished for the development of a wireless communications network that is carried on/off the aircraft and can connect all members of the test team. The proposal is to build an adhoc wireless network which has ONE-WAY receive capability from the existing aircraft intercom on C-17, KC-135, and (next phase) KC-46 test aircraft. The carry-on system would NOT require any aircraft modification and is designed using flight approved batteries and the same commercial wifi that is already approved for use in our military aircraft.

(vii) Estimated Delivery: 180 days ARO, FOB: Destination Edwards AFB, CA

(viii) The provision at 52.212-1, Instructions to Offerors-Commercial Products and Commercial Services, applies to this acquisition. All provisions and clauses can be viewed in their entirety at acquisition.gov.

ADDENDUM to 52.212-2, Evaluation – Commercial Items.

The Government will award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered.

The Government will award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered.

Any resulting contract of this RFQ will be awarded as Firm Fixed-Price. Quotes will be evaluated to determine best value. Price, features of the supply, delivery terms, and warranty terms are all factors to be considered when determining best value.

If options are included the Government will evaluate offers for award purposes by adding the total price for all options to the total price for the basic requirement. The Government may determine that an offer is unacceptable if the option prices are significantly unbalanced.

Evaluation of options shall not obligate the Government to exercise the option(s).

A written notice of award or acceptance of an offer, mailed or otherwise furnished to the successful offeror within the time for acceptance specified in the offer, shall result in a binding contract without further action by either party. Before the offer's specified expiration time, the Government may accept an offer (or part of an offer), whether or not there are negotiations after its receipt, unless a written notice of withdrawal is received before award.

(x) Offerors shall include a completed copy of the provision at 52.212-3, Offeror Representations and Certifications-Commercial Products and Commercial Services, with its offer. Completion of FAR 52.212-3 electronically at sam.gov is acceptable.
