Questions and Answers N61331-26-Q-KS39

Question: Could you please confirm whether offerors must provide proof of authorized Snap-on reseller status with the quote, and whether quotes should be submitted by email on company letterhead with pricing, delivery timeline, and product specifications? Also, if pricing should be submitted as a firm fixed-price total including delivery?

Answer: This solicitation is posted as a small business set aside for vendors to provide a quote for the Snap On Brand Tools Kits as requested in the documents from the solicitation. Yes, quotes should be submitted by email on company letterhead with pricing, including lead times, and with full specifications as listed in the solicitation description field. This will be firm fixed price.
