Questions and Answers

Question: Can the government confirm funding is available for this contract?

Answer: Because this contract will be a requirements type contract with an ordering period of five years, when the government orders services off of this contract they will have funding prior to requesting those services.

Question: If this requirement is currently being fulfilled by another contractor, can the Government provide the current contract number?

Answer: There is currently no active contract for this requirement

Question: If this requirement is currently being fulfilled by another contractor, can the Government confirm the follow on scope of work is similar to the current work/requirements?

Answer: There is currently no active contract for this requirement

Question: Please confirm that the Price Schedule should reflect an ordering period of five years and that the price per game on the price schedule will be used for all five years?

Answer: Yes, the price schedule does reflect an ordering period of 5 years and the price per game will be used for all five years.

Question: Would the Government provide an updated PWS - either in Word or PDF? The current document published to SAM.gov cannot be accessed.

Answer: A PDF version of the PWS will be uploaded.