W911SG-26-Q-A041 Questions and Answers

1. Does the Government currently own the SAWSTS equipment, or must the contractor furnish the complete system?

   No

2. Is this solicitation intended to be "brand name or equal," and will equivalent commercial systems be accepted?

   Equal to PWS and meets all requirements

3. Can the Government identify the current incumbent contractor and the manufacturer/model of the existing training system, if applicable?

Conflict Kinetics and not sure of model or manufacture.

4. How many contractor personnel currently support this requirement, and what labor categories are presently utilized?

   1-2 Personnel (maintenance/operating)

5. Does the Government anticipate requiring any designated Key Personnel under this contract?

   1-2 Personnel (maintenance/operating)

6. What are the anticipated annual operating hours and expected training throughput?

   40 hours a week with unaccompanied access to system trained SMs during non-duty hours. 2500 hours annually.

7. Will relevant past performance involving military simulation training systems, virtual reality training systems, or comparable commercial training technologies be considered acceptable?

   Yes

8. Does the Government anticipate expanding this requirement to additional training locations during the ordering period?

   No

9. Can you please clarify the type and quantity of weapons. It is difficult to quote TBD quantity. In addition, I believe they want the M17 not the M9.

   We would need to keep the current (18ea) M4 stock and add the
   (2ea) M7
   (2ea) M249/M250 as an additional light machine gun for mobilizing units requiring M250 qual.
   (1ea) M240
   (1ea) M2HB

10. In addition to our question below, we just noticed the CLIN schedule only supports the 2 , 5-day Train the Trainers for the Base Years, the 4 option years, and 1, 5-day Train the Trainer for the 6-month extension.

    Where should we place the pricing for all of the other items to support the Gunfighter Gym?

    Please price all additional labor costs and indirect expenses using the selected Unit of Measure (Days).