Vendor Question	VA Response
Is this call within 30 minutes and dispatch a technician or engineer within 2 hours? Or is the expectation to have a technician or engineer onsite within 2 hours?	The crew leader should be on site and hold a Level III Certification or higher. Yes, they should be able to start work and find the parts if needed within 2 hours. This is the same crew that is doing the inspection and will be doing the repairs if needed. The Maintenance Supervisor will be onsite as well so any communications should not be a problem.
