26Q1068 Fire Protection Hazardous Materials Technician (HMT) Course
Vendor Questions and Answers

1. Question: Can an out-of-state Pro Board accredited agency certify students at Whiteman or will the DoD administer the certification itself?
   Answer:
   Yes, out of state accredited agencies can certify. DOD accepts the certification.

2. Question: Does the Dod have preferred certification partners?
   Answer:
   IFSAC and Pro Board. Both are better.

3. Question: Can you please confirm whether it would be acceptable for the contractor to deliver the course in accordance with applicable OSHA 29 CFR 1910.120 standards, with the curriculum developed to meet the knowledge and skills required at the Hazardous Materials Technician level, and issue documentation verifying successful completion of that training?
   Answer:
   Yes, this is a very acceptable practice. Thank you.
