	QUESTION 1. Is onsite housing available? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: No. Offerors should have no expectation that onsite housing will be available.
	QUESTION 2. Are the PharmDs expected to float between Ft. Yates and McLaughlin? Will the Government reimburse their mileage? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Contractor pharmacists may be required to work at both the Fort Yates and McLaughlin Pharmacy locations. No mileage will be reimbursed as the contract is a firm-fixed price award.
	QUESTION 3. What are the basis for award? Is this an LPTA contract? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Award will be made on a best-value basis. This is not an LPTA acquisition.
	QUESTION 4. What are the work schedules for the PharmDs? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Schedules and shifts are expected to vary based on the need to augment permanent staff. The Fort Yates Hospital Pharmacy provides 24-hour coverage. The McLaughlin Clinic operates from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Central Time. Depending on the duty location and permanent staff availability, shifts may be 8, 10, or 12 hours in length.
	QUESTION 5. Do you have Pharm Techs? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Yes.
	QUESTION 6. Is there an incumbent vendor currently performing these services? If so, can you provide the contract number and/or vendor name? Continued ...

	GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: No.
	QUESTION 7. Can the Government clarify the expected work schedule for contractor pharmacists, including daily duty hours, shift lengths, after-hours coverage, and whether weekend or Federal holiday coverage will be required at either the Fort Yates or McLaughlin facilities?
	GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Schedules and shifts are expected to vary based on the need to augment permanent staff. The Fort Yates Hospital Pharmacy provides 24-hour coverage, and contractor pharmacists may be required to work nights, weekends, and Federal holidays at that location.
	The McLaughlin Clinic operates from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Central Time, with no night, weekend, or Federal holiday coverage anticipated.
	Depending on the duty location and permanent staff availability, shifts may be 8, 10, or 12 hours in length.
	QUESTION 8. Will contractor pharmacists be assigned to a single duty location, or will they be required to support both Fort Yates and McLaughlin on an as-needed basis? If support at both locations is required, please clarify the expected rotation, travel, and assignment requirements.
	GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Depending on permanent staffing levels, contractor pharmacists may not be assigned exclusively to a single duty location and may be required to support both locations.
	Travel time between the two locations is approximately 28 minutes. Work schedules are generally posted approximately one month or more in advance; however, last-minute schedule changes may occur due to unforeseen circumstances, such as employee illness.
	QUESTION 9. For Fort Yates, where the solicitation references continuous pharmacy operations and after-hours pharmacy support, can the Government clarify whether overtime, extended-hours coverage, on-call coverage, or rotational staffing will be required? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: The Fort Yates Hospital Pharmacy is staffed 24 hours per day to support inpatient and Emergency Department operations. If a contractor pharmacist is scheduled for a night or weekend shift, the pharmacist will be required to remain onsite in the pharmacy for the duration of the scheduled shift. These assignments are not considered on-call or callback coverage. The proposed rate should be all-inclusive and account for any costs associated with overtime, night, weekend, or other required shift coverage, as applicable. ——————————————————— QUESTION 10. For the McLaughlin facility, can the Government confirm whether pharmacist services will be limited to normal Government business hours, or whether any after-hours, weekend, or holiday coverage may be required? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: The McLaughlin Clinic operates from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Central Time. No night, weekend, or Federal holiday coverage is anticipated. ——————————————————— QUESTION 11. Although the solicitation requests up to four pharmacists, can the Government provide the anticipated staffing utilization or estimated number of pharmacists expected to be used during contract performance? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: The purpose of this contract is to augment permanent Federal staffing. Contractor staffing needs are anticipated to vary throughout contract performance based on the recruitment and retention of permanent Federal staff. ——————————————————— QUESTION 12. Can the Government provide the estimated workload or prescription volume, such as the average number of prescriptions processed per pharmacist per week or month, to assist with Continued ...

	staffing and recruitment planning? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: The estimated pharmacy volume is approximately 250-300 prescriptions per day at the Fort Yates Pharmacy and approximately 150-200 prescriptions per day at the McLaughlin Pharmacy. QUESTION 13. Beyond an active pharmacist license and BLS certification, are there any additional certification, training, or continuing education requirements that contractor pharmacists must meet? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Contractor pharmacists must possess current Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS) certification. Pharmacists are also expected to be proficient and comfortable working with inpatient and Emergency Department medications in a rural critical access hospital environment. QUESTION 14. Are continuing education certificates or related supporting documents required with the proposal submission, or will such documentation only be required after award or during onboarding? GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: Offerors should submit with their proposals any documentation they believe demonstrates or strengthens their ability to meet the solicitation requirements. The Government will evaluate proposals based on the information submitted and will not make assumptions regarding an offeror's capabilities based on information or documentation omitted from its proposal. AMENDMENT NOTICE Offerors shall acknowledge receipt of this amendment in accordance with the instructions provided in the solicitation. The Questions and Answers contained herein are incorporated into Solicitation No. 75H70626R00022 and shall be considered by offerors when preparing and submitting proposals. Continued ...
