15. Instructions, Provisions, and Evaluation Factors

a. 52.212-1 Instructions to Offerors—Commercial Products and Commercial Services.

(1) The provision at FAR 52.212-1, Instructions to Offerors—Commercial Products and Commercial Services (Nov 2021) applies to this solicitation. In addition, the following addendums identified below applies.

(2) Addendum to FAR 52.212-1(a), Submission of offers.

(3) The Offeror shall complete the Vendor Information and Pricing section under paragraph 5 of this solicitation.

(4) The Offeror shall submit a Technical Capability Statement that strongly supports the contractor's ability to satisfy the contract requirements IAW the SOW. The information submitted must be sufficient for the Government to assess if your capability will successfully satisfy the requirements of SOW.

(5) The offeror shall submit references by completing the Past Performance Questionnaire (PPQ) (Attachment 2), for contracts that you consider relevant in demonstrating your ability to fulfil the requirement of the SOW. The PPQs are to be submitted to our office. Previous PPQs are accepted; however, they must be recent (within the last three (3) years from date of receipt of solicitation) and must be relevant to the requirement of the SOW.

(6) The contractor's offer must meet the minimum requirements of the solicitation. Unless requested from the Contracting Officer, quote revisions received after the solicitation close date/time will not be accepted. Responses should contain your best terms and conditions. The government reserves the right to evaluate the quotes and award without interchanges.

(7) The government will not accept any refurbished equipment; all equipment provided must be new.

(8) Addendum to FAR 52.212-1(b) Period for acceptance of offers. The Offeror agrees to hold the prices in its offer firm for 60 calendar days from the date specified for receipt of offers, unless another time period is specified in an addendum to the solicitation.

(9) In accordance with FAR 52.232-18, Availability of Funds (Apr 1984), funds are not presently available for the option CLINS of this contract. The Government's obligation under this contract is contingent upon the availability of appropriated funds from which payment for contract purposes can be made. No legal liability on the part of the Government for any payment may arise until funds are made available to the Contracting Officer for this contract and until the Contractor receives notice of such availability, to be confirmed in writing by the Contracting Officer.

b. 52.212-2 Evaluation—Commercial Products and Commercial Services.

(1) The provision at FAR 52.212-2, Evaluation—Commercial Products and Commercial Services (Nov 2021) applies to this solicitation. In addition, the following addendums identified below applies.

(2) Addendum to FAR 52.212-2(a), Evaluation factors.

(3) Evaluation factors. The Government will award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible Offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered.

(4) The following factors will be used to evaluate offers:

Price
Technical Past Performance

(5) Price - The Government will evaluate offers by adding the total price of CLINs for all options to the total price for the basic requirement in order to determine the total quoted price for each offer (Base + option CLINs). Offerors will then be arranged according to price, from lowest priced offer to the highest priced offer. The Government may determine an offer is unacceptable if the option prices are significantly unbalanced. Evaluation of options shall not obligate the Government to exercise the option(s).

(6) Technical – Technical capability is evaluated as acceptable/unacceptable.

(a) The Government will review the contractor's Technical Capability Statement and evaluate if it will successfully satisfy the requirements of SOW. The rating table provided below will be used to evaluate Technical Capability.

Acceptable	Unacceptable
The offeror's technical capability statement provided sufficient information regarding their ability to successfully fulfill the requirement of the SOW.	The offeror's technical capability statement did not provide sufficient information regarding their ability to successfully fulfill the requirement of the SOW.

(7) Past Performance - Of the offers, having passed the technical evaluation, the government will begin evaluating past performance starting with the lowest priced offeror. Evaluation of the offerors past performance is subjective and will result in a rating of (See table below) Substantial, Satisfactory, Neutral, Limited, or No Confidence. Offerors who do not have recent and relevant past performance relating to this requirement will receive a rating of Neutral Confidence.

Rating	Description
Substantial Confidence	Based on the offeror's recent/relevant performance record, the Government has a high expectation the offeror will successfully perform the requirement.
Satisfactory Confidence	Based on the offeror's recent/relevant performance record, the Government has a reasonable expectation the offeror will successfully perform the requirement.
Neutral Confidence	No recent/relevant performance record is available or the offeror's performance record is so sparse, no meaningful confidence assessment rating can be reasonably assigned. The offeror may not be evaluated favorably or unfavorably on the factor of past performance.
Limited Confidence	Based on the offeror's recent/relevant performance record, the Government has a low expectation the offeror will successfully perform the requirement.
No Confidence	Based on the offeror's recent/relevant performance record, the Government has no expectation the offeror will successfully perform the requirement.

(a) The Government will evaluate past performance for recency and relevancy. Recency is defined as performance of similar services within the past three (3) years from the issue date of the solicitation. Relevancy is defined as services of the same magnitude of the requirement.

(b) If the lowest priced offer, having passed the technical evaluation receives a Substantial Performance Confidence Rating, that offer represents the best value for the Government and the evaluation process stops at this point; an award shall be made to that offeror without further consideration of any other offers. In the event the lowest priced offeror, having passed the technical evaluation does not receive a Substantial Performance Confidence Rating, the evaluation process will continue with the next lowest priced offeror until an offeror receives a Substantial Performance Confidence Rating or all offers are evaluated. In the event that no offeror receives a Substantial Performance Confidence Rating, the Contracting Officer will perform an integrated best value evaluation to determine the eventual awardee. The Government reserves the right to award to a Substantial Performance Confidence Rated offeror, and reserves the right to award to other than the lowest priced offeror.

c. 52.232-18 Availability of Funds. (Apr 1984)

Funds are not presently available for this contract. The Government's obligation under this contract is contingent upon the availability of appropriated funds from which payment for contract purposes can be made. No legal liability on the part of the Government for any payment may arise until funds are made available to the Contracting Officer for this contract and until the Contractor receives notice of such availability, to be confirmed in writing by the Contracting Officer.
