ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL DATE: 15-May-26x
PROJECT: 25-3-14

EVALUATION CRITERIA
WELD VENTILATION B299

1. EXPERIENCE

In the regular course of its business for a period of at least 3-yrs preceding this solicitation, the manufacturer of this equipment shall have previously supplied or offered for sale this type of equipment to industry for other than its own use. At least one of the following shall be provided as evidence:

1.1.1 PUBLISHED DATA: Each bidder shall provide a brochure, catalog, or published data describing the equipment offered.

1.1.2 REFERENCES: Each bidder shall provide contact information (including at least Company Name, Contact Name, Contact Telephone Number, and a description of the equipment the contact purchased) for minimum of (3) successful sales by the bidder The prospective bidder needs to be a recognized distributor for the equipment proposed.

1.1.2.1 Questions to be asked of the references shall be the following:

1.1.2.1.1 Do you own a new version of this item? If so, for how long? Are you satisfied with the product? Please elaborate.

1.1.2.1.2 Do you work for the private sector or perform DoD work?

1.1.2.1.3 Have you had any warranty or use issues with this item? If so how was the OEM response & remediation for the issue?

1.1.2.1.4 Would you buy again from the same supplier? If so why?

2. TECHNICAL

Each bidder shall submit a package containing the following information. Failure to provide all the data required with the package may result in a bidder being considered unresponsive and eliminated from further consideration.

2.1 Compliance Statement

Each bidder shall provide a statement of compliance. It shall be a copy of the purchase description. At the end of each and every paragraph the vendor shall type or write exactly either “COMPLY” or “NON-COMPLY”. Other formats will not be considered acceptable. If “NON-COMPLY” is written, a brief description of the non-compliance is required.

2.2 Equipment Identification

Each bidder shall identify the manufacture and model number of the equipment being offered. The bidder shall also identify all the options by number that are offered in order to meet this purchase description. The bidder shall also identify items that are not normally numbered for ordering such as installation, freight, and training.

2.3 Warranty

The proposal must include a minimum warranty of one year parts and labor and will begin upon final acceptance.