(a) Evaluation factors. The Government will award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible Offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered. The following factors will be used to evaluate offers: Technical Approach, Key Personnel, Past Performance, and Price.

Technical Approach: The Government places a high value on the offeror's demonstrated understanding of the requirements and the effectiveness of their proposed approach for performing removal of old and installation of new generator as described in the Statement of Work (SOW). Proposals that provide clear, detailed, and innovative methods, procedures, and equipment for preparation, cleaning, demolition, transport, and disposal of lead-containing materials will be rated more favorably.
Key Personnel: The Government highly values the qualifications and certifications of proposed key personnel, including Certified Safety Professional (CSP), Certified Industrial Hygienist (CIH), and HAZWOPER certification. The experience, credentials, and demonstrated expertise of key personnel assigned to the project are critical to successful performance and will be given significant consideration in the evaluation.

The Government may consider information obtained from references, past contracts, and other sources.
Price: Price will be evaluated for reasonableness and completeness.

(b) Options (if applicable). The Government will evaluate offers for award purposes by adding the total price for all options to the total price for the basic requirement. The Government may determine that an offer is unacceptable if the option prices are significantly unbalanced. The evaluation of options does not obligate the Government to exercise the option(s).
(c) Notice of award. A written notice of award or acceptance of an offer furnished to the successful Offeror within the time for acceptance specified in the offer, shall result in a binding contract without further action by either party. Before the offer's specified expiration time, the Government may accept an offer (or part of an offer), whether or not there are negotiations after its receipt, unless a written notice of withdrawal is received before award.
