
MOTOR VEHICLE USE MAP

CHECK YOUR MOTOR VEHICLE USE MAP!
The Motor Vehicle Use Map (MVUM) is a companion map to the one you are holding. While this visitor map displays motor vehicle opportunities, it may not be current. Please refer to the current year MVUM as well. Motorized travel off designated roads and trails is prohibited. MVUM maps are available for free at all Gallatin National Forest offices.

1
Forest visitors are allowed to park adjacent to designated motorized roads and trails where it is safe to do so and where parking does not damage natural and cultural resources, and is not prohibited by posted signs.

Travel Legend

This Gallatin National Forest Visitor Map displays information about recreation opportunities in the spring, summer and fall. For information about winter activities please see the winter Over-Snow Vehicle Use and Trail map. This visitor map is a change from older maps in that is displays opportunities instead of restrictions.

How to read this map: road and trail symbols are color coded to show a variety of recreation opportunities. For example, if a trail symbol ------ has no color code, that trail is open to foot and stock travel. If the trail symbol ------ is colored purple, that trail is also then open to bicycles and so forth.

Dispersed camping with motor vehicles is allowed within 300' of roads and trails that are designated on the MVUM as open to motor vehicles. This map also displays areas where dispersed camping with motor vehicles is restricted.

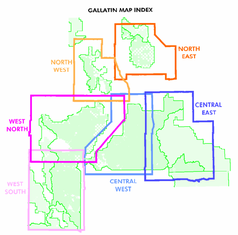
FOREST WIDE RESTRICTIONS

Stay on roads and trails.
Motorized, wheeled cross-country travel is prohibited.

Cross-country travel by motorized, wheeled vehicles is prohibited yearlong on all lands administered by the Forest Service. Please stay on roads and trails. Current local road, trail, and area restrictions still apply. The purpose of these restrictions is to protect riparian areas, wetlands, crucial wildlife habitat, threatened or endangered species, soils and vegetation, aquatic resources, and/or to reduce user conflicts.
Unless currently restricted, cross-country travel to a campsite within 300 feet of a road or trail is permitted by the most direct route causing the least damage. Site selection must be completed by nonmotorized means. Please contact your local Forest Service office for additional exceptions or restrictions.

NOTE: These restrictions apply only to the Gallatin National Forest. Other restrictions may apply in adjacent Forests - contact adjacent Forest Ranger District Offices listed in "Further Information" section.

COMMERCIAL HAULING: All commercial hauling on National Forest roads is prohibited without an approved ROAD USE PERMIT. Contact the nearest District Ranger's office for information and applications.



WELCOME TO THE GALLATIN NATIONAL FOREST

Located in southwestern Montana, the Gallatin National Forest is one of the most popular places to recreate in the state of Montana. Established in 1899, the Gallatin is part of the Greater Yellowstone Area, the largest intact ecosystem in the continental United States. There are six mountain ranges and two Congressionally-designated Wilderness areas encompassed in this 1.8 million acre Forest. The Gallatin National Forest provides habitat for a full complement of native fauna, including grizzly bears, gray wolves, bald eagles and Canada lynx. The Forest is also home to the headwaters of several world renowned trout fishing destinations including the Madison, Gallatin and Yellowstone Rivers.

As stewards of the Gallatin National Forest, we are committed to ensuring the health and sustainability of these resources for generations to come. We recognize the unique local, national, and global significance of the Gallatin's resources - its remarkable recreation, wildlife and wildland values, unique geological features, andaquatic and fisheries resources. My staff and I are dedicated to providing a broad spectrum of recreational and commodity opportunities within the capability of the land.

The Gallatin National Forest is a special place. We invite you to explore this treasured landscape and discover, for yourself, all that it has to offer.
