Possible laydown areas are labeled in Red. The largest area for equipment and materials would be by Hopewell Run on this aerial view in the top left corner. The closest and a little bit smaller is the one to the right of the Aquaculture Center label in the middle of the view. Both of these locations are behind a locked gate when not staffed. Other locations are other small in nature but could also work. This can all be finalized in the kickoff meeting.